Her Story

SHORT BIO (150 words — copy-paste ready)

Haley Jones is a Christian artist from Jacksonville, Florida whose soulful pop sound blends emotional honesty with bold conviction. Her debut single "Not Today" launched at #2 on the Christian iTunes charts and became the #1 song played on Independent Christian Radio in 2025. With over 750,000 followers, 100 million views across platforms, and 2 million+ streams, Haley has built one of the fastest-growing communities in CCM — all independently. Her music is rooted in redemption, resilience, and a calling she once tried to outrun. Through vulnerable storytelling and powerful melodies, she empowers listeners to stand firm in faith and remember that obedience to God will always lead you exactly where you're meant to be.

FULL BIO

THE BEGINNING

Born and raised in church, she grew up watching her family lead worship and always knew she was meant to sing on a stage — she just didn't know how that dream would unfold. At 15, she discovered she could sing and began sharing her voice on YouTube, unknowingly stepping into her purpose.

As a teenager, she faced seasons of isolation and being picked on, often feeling like a loner. Music became her refuge — the one thing that pulled her through the hardest days.

THE DETOUR

She later began leading worship, but unexpected opposition deeply wounded her and shook her faith, causing her to step away from church and pursue country music instead. Through college, she continued posting online, hoping God would open a door to a country career.

Two weeks before beginning a teaching job, that door finally opened — but it wasn't for country music. It was for Christian music. In that full-circle moment, Haley realized God had never left her, even when she ran, and she made the life-changing decision to go all in for Him.

"Obedience to God will always lead you exactly where you're meant to be."

THE SURRENDER

Since that surrender, everything has shifted. Her debut single, "Not Today," launched at #2 on the Christian iTunes charts and became the #1 song played on Independent Christian Radio in 2025, followed by four consecutive charting releases. With a soulful pop sound that blends emotional honesty with bold conviction, Haley has built a community of over 750,000 followers with over 100 million views across her platforms in 2025 alone, over 2 million streams on her music, and has shared stages with several artists she grew up admiring from afar.

Her message is clear: stand firm in your faith, fix your eyes on Jesus in every season, and don't let opposition move you from your calling. Through vulnerable storytelling and powerful melodies, Haley empowers listeners to remain anchored in Christ — not swayed by culture, hurt, or fear — and to remember that obedience to God will always lead you exactly where you're meant to be.
